Dear Collectors and Friends of the Arts,

It is that wonderful time of year again when the snow is flying, the sun is peeking out regularly most days and the ski slopes are getting a major amount of snow. You should be here enjoying it with us!

We here at Breckenridge Fine Art Gallery are looking forward to seeing all our wonderful clients from the past and of course meeting new ones as they come in this winter.

We’re eagerly anticipating a major winter of skiing, fine dining and above all, art collecting. In the beautiful Rockies we call home, the spectacular views have been well captured by several of our best artists who have spent hours out in the cold getting just the right color and composition to capture a major memory for your home. What makes some of these lovely artworks even better is that snow and blue skies are all around. This makes for a very colorful contrast of white snow against a brilliant blue sky, all on one canvas. You will be delighted to see these fabulous new works.

We have just begun to show several new artists who are every experienced and well known in other parts of the world. You will be delighted to see the fresh new approach to figurative as well as landscape painting as done by these new artists. Please stop by for hot tea or rich coffee and we will be glad to bring you up to date on the latest news in the art world. And of course tempt you with some fabulous new pieces from exotic places.

Hope to see you soon,
Kind regards,
James G. Tylich
